Page 4: Your comments on the proposal

Q1: Do you support the principle that non-residential social care services should be available free at the point of delivery to those who have been assessed by a relevant professional as requiring them (as is the case within health care)?

Yes

Q2. Do you agree that legislation is a necessary and appropriate means of addressing the issues identified?

Yes

Please explain the reasons for your response disabled people are unfairly charged for services which are often poor and over which we have no control legislation can help to limit how local authorities can act arbitrarily

Q3. The current system has resulted in varying charges in different areas for the same level and quality of service. Do you agree that there should be consistency across Scotland?

Yes

Q3. The current system has resulted in varying charges in different areas for the same level and quality of service. Do you agree that there should be consistency across Scotland?

What do you think the advantages and disadvantages would be?
ideally there should be no charging but it should be fair and transparent

Q4. Should all social care related services be free at the point of delivery?

Yes

Q5. What are the likely financial implications (if any) of the proposed Bill to you or your organisation? What (if any) other significant financial implications are likely to arise?

unsure about the financial implications for my organisation,

Q6. What do you think the implications of the proposed Bill are for equality? If it is likely to have a substantial negative implication, how might this be minimised or avoided?

Please explain your answer. If you answered Negative, please suggest any ways this impact could be minimised or avoided.

any legislation that created would have to take account of equalities legislation and the human rights act, my understanding is that the Scottish Parliament cannot implement legislation which preaches human rights act

Q7. Are there any other comments you would wish to make that are relevant to this proposal?

the should be no charging for care services United Kingdom is not an impoverished country.
